Here and There.

I give up the floor for Paw to try and answer the letter from "Citizen" in last week's issue.

I am accused of being, well you may take it from me that when I make a remark in my gal's letter it is with an object in view. My object in this case was to draw attention to the fact that the so-called campaign on Prohibition is misleading; the present act is more a regulation of the liquor trade than Prohibition on pure and simple, as has been said. It is also in making many people who will vote for it believe. If you do not think this is correct you have only to look in last week's Chronicle and you will find that Mr. Morrow gave an address on Prohibition, also that there had been a meeting in the Union Church, which was the first in this division of the Cochrane Riding on the subject. The teetotal people are too fond of confusing the voters with words. Now I take it that "Citizen" is a "teetotaler," which means an entire abstinence from all intoxicating liquor, while I am a "temperance man," meaning that I believe in moderation. He above explains my views, but I will go further and say that neither the Prohibition nor Liquor Act find favour with me; not because I cannot live without the bars, as I very seldom go into one. But I do object to being dictated to on the subject and to be treated as though I had no power to judge for myself or to even resist temptation when placed in my way. I believe firmly every man and woman too, has the right to carve out their own salvation. Then again I think it unjust to take away a man's living without giving him compensation. Mr. "Citizen" goes along with the few who above good stuff by saying that the laws which you have already made are really confined to their limits. Teach our children self restraint in all things; if it is the rising generation, one has to consider. If a child eats too many candies, you surely would not instantly abolish all such goods, but you would try and teach it how foolish it was and show it how it suffered for its greediness. Even our Lord had to undergo most severe temptations as you may remember, but I take the liberty of referring you to St. Matthew, chap. iv., vs. 1-2.

The "Citizen" seems a little hurt that I should take an interest in the scavenger work and back lanes of the town, which rather shows he had not considered the matter; or he would surely have seen their importance. This town was in a terribly unsanitary condition three years ago, and if a man had not come forward and undertaken the work there must have been a serious outbreak of fever as soon as the hot weather had started. Then about the haystacks, they were fortunately removed at once after my remarks. The town would have been very indifferent if there had been a serious fire and the engine blocked on their way to the outbreak.

Ed. Michael and family moved their household effects, stock and machinery to the Coronation district on Saturday, where Mr. Michael has rented a farm for a year. On account of Mrs. Michael's health they thought a change would be for the better.

Alex. Malcolm McPhee, son of Murdoch McPhee, died on March 30th, at Seattle, aged 31 years. He had been suffering with pneumonia four days.

The body was sent to Calgary for interment on Wednesday, April 7th. The family attended the funeral.

A serious fire took place on the farm of Abel Wenken, occupied by Earl Havens at present. The house, granary, barn and a stallion valued at a $1,000 were destroyed. It looked very much like the work of an incendiary as all the buildings were on fire at once. Mr. Havens was away at the time.

All Oddfellows are kindly invited to meet at the I.O.O.F. Hall at Two p.m.

Sampson Notes.

The farmers in this locality are quite busy with their spring work.

Henry congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fike on their recent addition, a girl.

That must have been quite a serious affair between a couple of farmers the other day. Henry and Clarence ought to put the curb on. We see Henry is going around with a lame ankle.

Mr. Farquharson seems to be quite busy hauling lumber. What's going to happen boys?

James Banta and family have moved on to the F. G. Todd farm.

We understand the loss of L. F. Harris and family. But we wish them every success in their new home.

We understand that Mr. Chas. Keil and family have gone on the Harris place.

There was quite a rain and thunder storm around Sampson last week, a good sign of an early spring.

Denmark's Awakening

Increasing Wealth Through the Scientific Development of Farming Industry

We all know of story of Denmark's wonderful agricultural awakening, and its direct consequences. In America, however, the situation was one of the poorest and least progressive States in Europe. In natural conditions it closely resembles Nova Scotia, which is about one-third the size. Denmark is now manufacturing a thriving population five times greater than that of this province, and is yearly increasing in wealth and contentment, largely through the scientific development of agriculture. Denmark is now producing most of its own food, it exports annually upwards of 100 million dollars of dairy produce and pork. —Halifax Chronicle.

Renewed Vigor In Old Age

This Letter Brings a Message of Cheer to the Aged—Results of Using Dr. Chene's Nerve Food

New, rich blood is what is most needed in the declining years to keep the body in full health. Dr. Chene's Nerve Food is a wonderful gift in maintaining good health and prolonging life; it is attested by the writings of many physicians.

Dr. J. Leard, North Ryton, P.R.L. writes: "At seventeen years of age my son gave up all forms of exercise and was unable to walk, run, jump, swim, and was unable to work. He was irregular and weak in action and would palpitate. My nerves also became weak and I could do nothing with him. I took him to Dr. Chene and he obtained what I wanted. Since we are under sea masters if not masters above the waves continue the writer. Let us help our men to live longer. Zeppelins and our zeppelins, acting in concert with our submarines, strike fear into the hearts of the British people. Britain has taken from us about four hundred merchant ships. Our reply must be this: For every stolen ship we will sink ten more and they will be destroyed. Let us sow with the aid of our dirigibles terror and death in the hearts of the British people. We have the secret of shedding fire rain on the British soil, why should we not make use of it?"

Loans to Farmers in U.S.

A correspondent wants to know what rate of interest farmers have to pay for loans in the Northwest.

Not much can be said on the battlefield. In the economic field also much damage can be done by one's negligence to another. To paralyze industry, to bring down production, than to stay many of the enemy's forces.

Soon after the beginning of the war in Europe, the Germans complained bitterly of England's action in cutting her off from cable communications with the whole world. Britain controls nearly every cable station in the world in an effort to suppress German commerce by destroying the cables. The contraband was extended to include many articles used in peace as well as in war. Several measures have been taken to restrain use of British credit in financial operations which might aid Germany.—Southern Lumberman.

Won Fame on Its Merits.—The unusual popularity of Dr. Thomas' English Oil may be due to the fact that it is not so advertised, but is entirely due to the merits of this Oil and its many uses. It is well known and hamlet in the country it is sought after solely because of its good qualities.

Cereals Crops on Experimental Farm

Cereal production has occupied an important position in the work of the experimental farm since its organization some twenty-eight years ago. By selection, the best varieties of grain for the particular climate and soil have been sought to light and by breeding many important sorts have been produced.

Pioneer wheat, a new early sort possibly the best for the north, is filling an important place in northern sections. The results in 1914 with this and other sorts of wheat, as well as barley, oats, rye, etc., at the Central Plant and sixteen branch farms and stations and two main stations are presented in the experimental farm series.

This reasonable pamphlet is available at the Publication Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local application, as they cannot reach the deadened portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is to remove the cause.

Deafness is caused by an hardened condition of the membranes of the ear, which causes the fluid to become solidified, and thus the result, and unless the inflammation can be removed, the deafness will remain.

The hearing will be destroyed forever, hence care must be taken to prevent the formation of an inflamed condition of the mucous membranes.

Deafness is often caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by any ordinary treatment.

WHY THE CAMPAIGN MUST BE CONTINUED

Financial Reasons For Continuing the
"Made-in-Canada" Movement—
Dollars at Home

Here are financial reasons why this "Made-in-Canada" campaign must be continued:

Imports into Canada, 1912-$692,022,392
Exports from Canada, 1913 $32,232,067

Balance against us....$298,800,335
Interest on our borrowings abroad.....150,000.00

Total settlement, 1913.....$448,800,73

How do we do it? Very simple—we pay off $150,000,000!

Last year it was pretty much the same thing over again. So we borrowed some more. But (note this, please!) borrowing wasn't nearly so easy; we couldn't get nearly so much!

This year (1915) we'll hardly be able to borrow a dollar abroad! England and France need their money for other purposes.

What's to be done? For the honor of Canada, we mustn't fall in meeting our obligations, and there's still that $150,000,000 of interest to pay!

Turn it over carefully in your mind, and you'll soon be convinced that there's only one possible way to meet the situation. We must import less and export more. In the words of Hon. Mr. White, Finance Minister, we must produce, produce, and keep on producing!

The more you think of it, the clearer it becomes that now and always it has to be "Made-in-Canada."

Crime and Drink.

"Crime is condemned beer," said Canon Horsey. In his new volume, "How Criminals are made and Prevented," Canon Horsey gives his own estimate of the proportion of crime incited by liquor.

The estimate is based on observation throughout ten years service as Prison Chaplain at Clerkenwell Gaol, and during a long career of social service in the metropolis.

It is that

"Half the total amount of crime is due directly and an additional quarter indirectly, to our drinking habits and to the excessive opportunity for their creation sustenance and growth." Canon Horsey gives details of returns made to him by the Church of England Temperance Society Police Court Missionaries of the South London riverside area. In three months there was a total of 7,718 offences, and of these 5,100 drink was named on the charge sheet. Out of 1,985 cases in Lambeth Police Court drink figured in all but 249 i.e. in 87 per cent.

Lieut.-Col. A. B. McIlrady, Chairman of Prison Commission for Scotland cited the following statistics in a paper read by him at the International Congress on Alcoholism in 1909. In 1907 the Scottish Police Courts dealt with no less than 56,000 cases of drunkenness and a further 32,000 cases in which drunkenness was accompanied by brawling and fighting. That is a total of 90,000 cases of public disorder in a single year, all due directly to drink. He gives figures to show that 84 per cent. of the murderous assaults were committed under the influence of alcohol.

Mr. Justice Darling wrote thus to the Lord Chancellor: "You may say this from me—that the crimes of violence, including especially offences against women and children, almost all of them, so far as they come before me are directly the effect of excessive drinking."

The Rev. J. P. Dingle, for many years President of the Divine Court, said in the House of Lords in 1909, in debate on the Divorce Bill, "the record of misery revealed in the Divorce Courts is drink. I believe that if the effects of drink could be abolished altogether the Divorce Courts might almost close its doors."

We would like any advocate of the bars to show any advantages contributed to the community or to any individual that will balance counteract in any degree whatever these awful facts given by Canon Horsey and Lieut.-Col. McIlrady.

Correspondence.

Editor Chronicle.

Will you permit me the use of sufficient space to warn the people of Crossfield against the all too common practice of burning rubbish about their places without keeping watch on same. Several times during the past week my attention has been drawn to fires that were lighted in none too safe places, and then left alone to burn out or scatter if the wind should rise. In two particular cases they had to be extinguished or serious fires might have resulted.

I ask the co-operation of the citizens against this practice and whenever necessary to light fires to stand guard until thoroughly burned, quenching the embers with a pail or two of water.

Yours,
For the Prevention of Fires,
E. S. MCROLRY,
Fire Chief.

The Bishop of Calgary Visits Crossfield.

On Saturday last the Bishop of Calgary paid a visit to Crossfield for the purpose of holding a Confirmation service at the Anglican Church on Sunday.

His Lordship was met at the station by the Churchwardens and taken by George McLeod in his auto to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Lewis who's guess he was during his stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. George McLeod had very kindly invited the churchwardens and vestrymen to meet the Bishop and Rev. J. P. Dingle to partake of dinner together.

The repast was all that could be desired and all present thoroughly enjoyed the good things provided.

The Rev. J. P. Dingle rose to propose a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. McLeod.

He said "I can give him great pleasure to thank the host and hostess, who had been so kind and thoughtful to make it possible for the church officers to thus socially meet his Lordship. He must say that since he had been coming to Crossfield he had met nothing but kindness everywhere.

Mr. Manning supported the rev. gentleman in thanking the host and hostess and remarked on the pleasure it gave him in again meeting his Lordship, also taking occasion to make a few remarks on the financial condition of the diocese, which must be a source of great anxiety to his Lordship.

His Lordship in replying said it gave him great pleasure in being able to meet the officers of the Church, and went on to remark on the extensive growth and many changes that had taken place in the history of the Anglican Church in Western Canada during his long connection with it. Telling of incidents in the formation of the Calgary diocese, and hoping the time would speedily come when all the dioceses would be on a better footing.

At eight o'clock the company adjourned to the home of Mrs. R. L. Bois who had kindly placed themselves at the service of the church to have a social evening, and to give the ladies an opportunity to meet his lordship. Here a number of ladies had arrived and a couple of hours was spent socially, piano-forte selections, singing and reciting, occupying the time.

On Sunday morning a Confirmation service was held, when 5 candidates presented themselves for confirmation, two females and three males. The service closing with Holy Communion. The Bishop was assisted by the Rev. J. P. Dingle.

His Lordship and Mr. Dingle left on Sunday afternoon for Calgary.

Wanted, everybody to know that the Sampson's Store are paying 1c. per lb. for Beef Hides.

Eph. Buschert, Proprietor.
